

AMERICAN
COLLEGE of CARDIOLOGY

DC Winter Wonders

Visiting Washington, DC, in the winter offers a unique charm that's hard to match in any other season. The city comes alive with holiday lights, transforming landmarks into a winter wonderland. Catch world-class performances at historic venues, experience DC's vibrant culinary scene, and explore museums and monuments. Whether you're strolling through twinkling streets or enjoying a quiet evening by a fireplace, DC in the winter offers a memorable mix of culture, cuisine and holiday cheer.

Plus, don't miss your chance to check out DC's monuments and memorials on a private tour, planned and reserved exclusively for our attendees. Get ready for some epic photo ops at iconic sites like the Pentagon 9/11 Memorial, White House, Lincoln Memorial, U.S. Capitol, and hear fascinating stories about each landmark from your guide. Enter the password ACCTOUR and secure your spot!

Must-Sees During the
VALENTIN FUSTER
CARDIOVASCULAR
SYMPOSIUM

Award- Winning Restaurants

Immerse yourself in the culinary brilliance of the nation's capital, where acclaimed chefs craft exceptional dishes that are as innovative as they are delicious.

Tail Up Goat

This one-Michelin-starred mediterranean restaurant is an Adams Morgan favorite. Enjoy everything from goat lasagna and house-baked breads to hearty veggie-friendly fare.

Fiola

This Michelin starred restaurant offers regional Italian cuisine with classic and modern elements, served in a retro glamorous setting.

China Chilcano

A restaurant by José Andrés that combines Peruvian Criollo, Chinese Chifa and Japanese Nikkei cuisines.

Moon Rabbit

Led by acclaimed Chef Kevin Tien, the restaurant embodies an innovative approach to Vietnamese cuisine, showcasing a menu that is both unique and complex.

Zaytinya

Chef José Andrés' ocean-blue ode to the cuisine of Greece, Lebanon and Turkey means an ample, wide-ranging carte.

Performing Arts & Theater

Discover world-class performances and productions within the renowned theaters of Washington, DC.

The Washington Ballet

Presents The Nutcracker at the Warner Theater: DC's favorite ballet company pulls out all the stops for this classic Christmas tale that features a special DC twist.

A Christmas Carol at Ford's Theater

Acclaimed actor Craig Wallace assumes the role of Ebenezer Scrooge in a lavish Victorian-style musical production of Charles Dickens' timeless classic, the staging of which is a time-honored holiday tradition in the nation's capital.

NPR's A Jazz Piano Christmas at the Kennedy Center

Your favorite holiday classics as you've never heard them, featuring jazz-infused renditions of the season's most-loved tunes performed by pianist Kris Davis and more of today's hottest musicians.

National Symphony Orchestra Pop's: A Holiday Pops! at the Kennedy Center

Get ready to sing along, laugh and embrace the magic of the season with sparkling renditions of your favorite holiday classics, Broadway showstoppers and beyond.

Handel's Messiah at the Washington National Cathedral

Join the Cathedral's choir and baroque orchestra for a stirring rendition of Handel's beloved Messiah.

Washington, DC's Winter Exclusives

Take a White House Christmas Tour and Visit the National Christmas Tree

Step inside the iconic White House and experience its special holiday decorations! Plus, visit the National Christmas Tree and walk through the Pathway of Peace to see the state trees with student designed ornaments.

Please note: Tickets are required for White House tours and must be requested at least 21 days in advance from your member of Congress. Find your rep and contact details and learn more about visiting The White House.

Ice Skate in the Sculpture Garden

Don't miss your chance to skate amid magnificent works of art and towering sculptures in a lush garden.

Shop For Holiday Gifts

Get your holiday spirit on while supporting 70+ local vendors at the Downtown Holiday Market or shop for global style and trends at CityCenterDC, whose collection boasts some of the most luxurious brands in the world.

Attend a Washington Wizards Game

Catch a game featuring Washington, DC's very own NBA team at the Capital One Arena.

Want to explore more of what DC has to offer?

Don't miss world-class museums and the monuments and memorials featured at America's most visited national park.

Get Cozy With a Drink

Check out some of DC's famous spots with decked out halls for the winter holidays.

Experience Georgetown Glow

Set against the historic backdrop of DC's oldest neighborhood, Georgetown GLOW is the region's only free curated outdoor public light art experience.

AMERICAN COLLEGE of CARDIOLOGY